DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claim 17 is allowed. Regarding claim 17, the prior art does not disclose or suggest the combination of wherein a power supply device having a DC output unit which performs outputting under constant -voltage/constant-current control, comprising: a constant-current control device which performs a first constant-current control operation for maintaining a first current value and a second constant-current control operation for maintaining a second current value which is larger than the first current value; a voltage detecting device which detects a voltage drop of the DC output which is caused by a rush current; a temperature detecting device which detects a temperature of the power supply device; and a switching device which switches a constant-current control operation from the first constant-current control operation to the second constant-current control operation when said voltage detecting device detects a voltage drop of the DC output while said constant-current control device performs the first constant-current control operation, and switches a constant-current control operation from the second constant-current control operation to the first constant-current control operation when said temperature detecting device detects that a temperature of the power supply device exceeds a predetermined temperature while said constant-current control device performs the second constant-current control operation.

Response to Arguments

2. Applicant's arguments, see Appeal Brief, filed 7/14/08 with respect to the rejection of claim 17 has been fully considered and are persuasive. The rejection of claim 17 has been withdrawn.

Conclusion

In view of the Appeal Brief filed on 7/14/08 PROSECUTION IS HEREBY REOPENED.

To avoid abandonment of the application, appellant must exercise one of the following two options:

(1) file a reply under 37 CFR 1.111 (if this Office action is non-final) or a reply under 37 CFR 1.113 (if this Office action is final); or,

(2) initiate a new appeal by filing a notice of appeal under 37 CFR 41.31 followed by an appeal brief under 37 CFR 41.37. The previously paid notice of appeal fee and appeal brief fee can be applied to the new appeal. If, however, the appeal fees set forth in 37 CFR 41.20 have been increased since they were previously paid, then appellant must pay the difference between the increased fees and the amount previously paid.
